

The Andean Crossing, Chile

This 6 day ride starts in Puerto Varas and finishes in Bariloche. It is a shortened version of the Puelo Ride (you miss the riding on day 2 and day 3 of that itinerary).

Day One – Puerto Varas to Las Rosas

You are collected from your hotel in Puerto Varas at 9am.

Please note that the itineraries may change depending on local weather conditions and the riding ability of your group, but always with your best interests in mind.

Load the minibus and from Puerto Varas drive for around 4 hours towards the Andes. Along the way you can admire the Llanquihue Lake and the volcanoes of Calbuco and Osorno that are part of the Vicente Perez Rosales National Park.

On arrival at the edge of the Reloncavi estuary, there will be a short stop to appreciate the local gastronomy of the village of Cochamó, well known for its agricultural and fishing industries.

Arriving at Tagua Tagua Lake, there is time to have lunch before crossing the lake by ferry.

After another hour or so by vehicle, near Puerto Urrutia you meet the baqueanos and the horses. At the river's edge you cross by boat and the horses swim alongside.

Pack all the bags and off you go. Ride along the banks of the Puelo River and cross farmland. Late in the afternoon, arrive at your overnight stop which is close to the Puelo River.

Dinner and overnight at a local farm.

Hours in the saddle: c. 2 hours

Day Two – Las Rosas to Ventisqueros

After breakfast the baqueanos will prepare the packhorses. Set off today riding into the Ventisqueros Valley - a remote and green landscape.

Cross wonderful forests and small farms before stopping for a picnic lunch next to the Ventisqueros River.

This afternoon you cross the Ventisqueros River and ride along the valley to a remote farm where you stay for 2 nights.

Dinner and overnight at a local farm.

Hours in the saddle: c. 6 hours.

Day Three – Day ride to El Toro

After breakfast set off on a gentle ride, crossing the river once more to join the other valley and approach its glacier. This little valley turns wild and remote, with incredible flora. You ride close to the Alerces forest.

Day Four – Ventisqueros to Bandurrias Island

After breakfast set off on a full-day ride featuring forests, river crossings, mountains and waterfalls. Lunch will be a picnic near the Ventisqueros River.

In the afternoon, make your way across the Puelo River using an important hanging bridge, crucial for communication between the local inhabitants and the outside world. This area is particularly spectacular due to its huge waterfalls and rapids.

Continue riding across the wild ancient forest until reaching Las Rocas Lake. Leave the horses on the shore and take a 10 minute boat trip to Bandurrias Island where you spend two nights.

Dinner and overnight on Bandurrias Island.

Hours in the saddle: c. 7 hours.

Day Five – Day ride from Bandurrias Island

Today's ride is to the Blue Lake "Lago Azul" with its crystal clear waters and abundant fish life, surrounded by majestic peaks and a stunning landscape. After about two hours in the saddle, enjoy a picnic lunch relaxing on the shores of the lake.

After lunch, continue riding towards Las Rocas Lake. Pass through typical cold jungle or Valdivian-type rainforest with its very diverse vegetation. You should see ancient trees and majestic mountains.

Leave the horses and transfer by boat back to the Island.

Dinner and overnight on Bandurrias Island.

Riding time c. 5 to 6 hours.

Day Six - Bandurrias Island to Bariloche

After breakfast, leave the island and head up to the frontier. This short trip will take you to Inferior Lake, the source of the Puelo River, a major river that flows into the Pacific.

Arrive at Chilean immigration post “Retén Paso El Bolsón” where customs procedures are completed.

It is a short descent to Inferior Lake, official harbour of the frontier and the final point of your adventure on horseback. Say goodbye to your horses and guides who have helped you along the way.

It is a journey of around 45 minutes by motor-boat across two lakes and the rapids between Argentina and Chile. After going through Argentine border formalities, a minibus will be waiting to take you to El Bolsón (a journey of c. 30 minutes). Have a short lunch break here before the c. 2.5 hour transfer to San Carlos de Bariloche with an expected time of arrival of around 18.00.

Riding time c. 2 hours.

In case of any delays you are advised to plan to overnight in Bariloche rather than to have an onward flight booked. We can book this accommodation for you if you wish.
